A YEAR IN PHOTOS .............................................................. 33
I am honored to present the 2018 San Mateo County Probation Department Annual Report. This report highlights the continued great work and resiliency of our staff amidst the challenges we face, both at the local and national levels. It serves to highlight the services we provide our clients to assist them on their path of rehabilitation as well as to assist in victim restoration. Much of this report features data and statistics that represent the work we’ve done in the past year.

In 2018, the Probation Department received its recertification as a Certified Evidence Based Organization, becoming one of the leading examples of community corrections in the state. However, this distinction comes with the significant responsibility of ongoing system improvement. We must strive to learn from the practices we have in place so that we can continue to improve the services we provide. We are committed to continue to provide our clients with services that are proven to be effective in assisting in their rehabilitation, particularly through risk-based supervision.

2018 served as the starting point for an industry wide discussion about our juvenile facilities, the dramatic decreases in violent crime rates and the decrease in the number of individuals we serve. The data found within this report with hopefully serve as a catalyst to inform these very complex conversations and provide some context.

Looking beyond 2018, I remain committed to our mission of providing quality services and doing our part to contribute to community safety. What makes us great is our heart for this profession and those we have the privilege of serving. Excellence, Professionalism, Leadership, Integrity and Teamwork are not just words on a letterhead or business card. It is who and what we are as an organization.

Your support of the San Mateo County Probation Department is valued and respected!

Chief John Keene
San Mateo County Overview

San Mateo County, founded in 1956, has a total land area of 455 square miles, and is located in the heart of the San Francisco Bay Area. In total, there are 20 cities within San Mateo. As of 2017, the county has over 770,000 residents. San Mateo County is one of the top three wealthiest counties in the state. The median household income in California in 2017 was $71,805, while San Mateo County had a median household income of $108,627. San Mateo County has a smaller percentage of residents living in poverty (7.3%) than the state average (14.3%); however, even with this seemingly healthy economic environment, the disparity between poor and wealthy in San Mateo County is one of the largest in the nation.
San Mateo County Probation

The San Mateo County Probation Department ensures the protection of public safety via:

- Investigating major elements of crimes, the impact upon victims, the criminal histories and behavior of offenders, plus possible sentencing alternatives.
- Providing this information to the Superior Court in the form of accurate and impartial reports and recommendations.
- Monitoring and supervising those placed on probation to ensure that court ordered “conditions of probation” are obeyed and public safety is maintained.

Within the criminal justice system, probation represents the link between the application of appropriate consequences for illegal behavior and the recovery of offenders to productive, law-abiding lives.

Within the San Mateo Probation Department, we have four divisions, each of which will be highlighted in the current report:

- Administrative Services Division
  - The Administrative Services Division is dedicated to providing the San Mateo County Probation Department with support in the areas of payroll and personnel, fiscal, contracts, procurement, background investigations and training, information technology and data, research and analysis.

- Adult & Realignment Division
  - The Adult and Realignment Services Division protects the community by enforcing probation conditions and supporting the Court’s decision to impose appropriate sentences as well as reducing recidivism through collaborative efforts in specialized supervision.

- Juvenile Services Division
  - The Juvenile Services Division protects the community through victim restoration and youth offender accountability and rehabilitation.

- Institutions Services Division
  - The Institutions Services Division provides juvenile court-ordered secure and non-secure programs, including detention, camps, and community service. The goals of the Division are to provide safe and secure housing for youth detained by the court, protect the public, support families, and aid in youths’ rehabilitation and transition to the community.

The Adult and Realignment Services Division supports community safety through the collective efforts of the County’s criminal justice system. There are 84 Deputy Probation Officers (DPOs) and 10 Probation Services Managers (PSMs) assigned to the division. 61 DPOs supervise approximately 4,269 clients, while 23 DPOs provide court investigations or pretrial monitoring. There are 41 professional staff and four Legal Office Services Supervisors (LOSS) to support probation work. They are supervised by a Legal Office Services Manager and an Administrative Services Manager.

The table below compares the number of clients supervised in FY 16-17 to the number of clients supervised in FY 17-18. As of June 30, 2018, there was a 29% increase in the number of supervisees in the Adult and Realignment Services Division.

PERCENT OF ADULT OFFENDERS SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETING PROBATION

- FY 2015-16: 78%
- FY 2016-17: 78%
- FY 2017-18: 83%
Over 3,000 court reports were written in FY 2017-18. Deputy Probation Officers provide sentencing and treatment recommendations to Judges on a regular basis. With the passage of Proposition 63 in January 2018, the Division handled 849 Prop 63 matters in the first half of 2018. The Division collaborated with justice system partners to create an effective process for Prop 63 matters.

The Division is also responsible for making direct contact with offenders through routine field visits and through special field operations. In FY 17-18, the Division conducted over 1,000 field visits and recorded approximately 74% field visit compliance checks with high risk offenders. The Division has also led two multi-agency law enforcement task force operations focusing on offenders associated with domestic violence and sex offenders.

The Pretrial Services Unit was monitoring approximately 524 defendants on Supervised O.R. at the end of FY 17-18. They completed 7,064 reports and 8,992 investigations. 598 defendants were recommended for SOR. 586 defendants were granted SOR while 379 were denied SOR.
DUI Court was created in September 2017, in collaboration with the San Mateo County Superior Court, District Attorney’s Office, Private Defender Program, Behavioral Health and Recovery Services (Alcohol and Other Drugs) and the Probation Department. The purpose of DUI Court is to reduce repeat alcohol-related incidents, accidents, injuries and death. As of June 2018, 197 referrals had been made to DUI Court since inception, with 118 active participants.

The collaborative team also secured the services of SCRAM of California to provide electronic monitoring through a Continuous Alcohol Monitoring Device (CAM) for participants in DUI Court. The CAM device measures for alcohol through a transdermal process every 30 minutes, 24 hours a day. A participant’s “sober day” is a full 24-hour period where a participant has no confirmed consumption or tamper violation. As of June 2018, SCRAM of California has delivered a total of 4,972 sober days to San Mateo County and the participant compliance rate is 70%.

Correctional Assessment and Intervention System (CAIS)
DPOs administer an evidence-based risk assessment tool called the Correctional Assessment and Intervention System (CAIS). This tool is used to assess the different levels of supervision based on risk strategies to re-offend. With the results of the risk assessment, DPOs develop individualized case plans that address the offenders’ criminogenic needs.

CAIS Supervision Strategies
The CAIS provides a supervision strategy for the offender of selective intervention – situational (SI-S), selective intervention – treatment (SI-T), casework/control (CC), environmental structure (ES), and limit setting (LS). The Figure below outlines the characteristics of each of these supervision strategies.
SUPERVISION STRATEGY

- Selective Intervention-Treatment (SI-T)
  - Offenders have similar characteristics to the SI-S group, however they may experience any of the following: ongoing drug or alcohol abuse, sexual offense history, or serious emotional disturbance.
  - These offenders may require treatment to deal with the specific issues listed above.

- Casework Control (CC)
  - Offenders experience general instability in their life (changing jobs frequently, family problems, chemical dependency). This group commonly experience alcohol and drug abuse.
  - Offenders may react negatively to those in positions of authority.

- Limit Setting (LS)
  - Highest level of engagement in criminal behavior. Offenders often view being a "successful criminal" as a major goal in their lives.
  - Offenders in this group need to have firm limits set with detailed consequences, and these consequences must be enforced consistently.

- Selective Intervention-Situational (SI-S)
  - Offenders have pro-social value structures and experience sufficient stability in their lives.
  - Often, their involvement with the system is limited or an isolated event related to extenuating circumstances (e.g. stress).
  - Offenders in this group require low levels of contact.

- Environmental Structure (ES)
  - Offenders generally lack social and vocational skills. They have difficulty with cause-and-effect thinking and lack insight.
  - Offenders need to improve social skills (e.g., assertiveness, ability to judge character, and ability to empathize).
Juvenile Services Division

The Juvenile Services Division protects the community through victim restoration and youth offender accountability and rehabilitation. There are 35 Deputy Probation Officers (DPOs) and five Probation Services Managers (PSMs) assigned to the Division, supervising 286 juvenile probationers\(^1\) in the community. These DPOs provide community supervision to juvenile offenders residing in San Mateo County.

The chart below highlights the number of juvenile probationers over the span of four years. Importantly, these data points are based on the number of active probationers as of June 30 of the respective years.

Assessment Center

For all youth who are either detained or referred to probation, an initial intake process is performed by a DPO in the Assessment Center who conducts assessments and interviews to help inform how the case will proceed through the juvenile justice system. Determining factors include: the type of offense, criminogenic risk level, whether a youth is a first-time or repeat offender, community and school engagement, and the safety and stability of youth’s home environment. The Figure to the right outlines the cases that were screened in the Assessment Center during the FY 2017-18.

Investigations

If, after reviewing the case, a petition is filed by the District Attorney, the case is navigated to the Investigations Unit. The Investigations Unit DPOs are tasked with gathering substantial information about youth and their family that is used to make recommendations to the Court at different stages of the court process, including the arraignment, pre-trial, jurisdictional hearing, and possibly the dispositional hearing. Different reports are written by the DPOs depending upon the unique circumstances of a youth and his/her case. The Chart to the right outlines the number of reports completed month by month by the Investigations Unit during the FY 2018-19.
Field Supervision

DPOs in Field Supervision supervise youth within their communities. Within the Field Supervision there are eight units (General, Intensive, Gang, G.I.R.L.S. Program, CSEC, Camp Kemp, Electronic Monitoring Program, and Camp Glenwood). The table to the right outlines the percent of youth who complete probation without a new sustained law violation. For FY 2017-18, 85% of youth completed probation without a new sustained law violation.

Intensive Family Services & Placement Unit

The Intensive Family Services Unit consists of the Wraparound Program, also known as the Wraparound Turning Point Full Service Partnership, and Family Preservation Program (FPP). These Units are designed to meet the unique needs of each youth by requiring family participation and focusing on the strengths of the family to prevent out-of-home placement. Within these units, intensive services are provided to youth and their families. Prior to removal from the home, all efforts to deescalate at-risk or violent behaviors have been exhausted by Probation, and placement is viewed as a last resort. The chart above highlights that during the 2017-18, 94% of youth remained in their homes. For youth where placement is deemed necessary, supervision occurs within by a DPO in the Placement Unit.
Juvenile Assessment and Intervention System (JAIS)

JAIS is a risk, strengths, and needs assessment tool designed to assist in effectively and efficiently supervising youth, both in institutional settings and in the community. The JAIS consists of a brief prescreen assessment known as the JAIS Boys Risk or JAIS Girls Risk, administered in addition to the full assessment and reassessment components. The graph to the right demonstrates the number of youth who were Low, Moderate, and High Risk on the prescreen for the FY 2017-18.

Supervision Strategy

In addition to indicating the likelihood the youth will reoffend, the JAIS provides a supervision strategy for the youth of selective intervention (SI), casework/control (CC), environmental structure (ES), and limit setting (LS). The Figure below outlines the characteristics of each of these supervision strategies.

- SI
  - Youth have pro-social value structures and experience sufficient stability in their lives.
  - Often, their involvement with the system is limited or an isolated event related to extenuating circumstances (e.g. stress).
  - Youth in this group require low levels of contact.

- CC
  - Youth have experienced chronic instability that may be the byproduct of chaotic or abusive home environments.
  - Youth commonly experience emotional disorders and substance use and may react negatively to those in positions of authority.

- ES
  - Youth generally lack social, intellectual, and vocational skills.
  - Youth need management that is direct and concrete and that promotes the development and understanding of social skills.

- LS
  - Highest level of engagement in criminal behavior.
  - Youth have engaged in violent and aggressive behavior.
  - Youth in this group need to have firm limits set with detailed consequences, and these consequences must be enforced consistently.
Institutions Services Division

The Institutions Services Division provides juvenile court-ordered secure and non-secure programs, that includes the Youth Services Center Juvenile Hall, Camp Glenwood for Boys, Margaret J. Camp for Girls, and the Community Care Program. All youth who are detained are provided evidence-based programs, services using evidence-based or promising practices or curriculum-based programming.

The Division’s partnership with the Office of Education’s Gateway School continues to remain collaborative as staff remain present within the school setting to maintain order and to intervene when behavioral problems arise with youth. Youth in custody attend Hillcrest School and are provided an educational curriculum from a WASC accredited school system as well as personalized learning and access to college courses that better prepare youth academically, so they are more successful in school when released.

FY 2017-18: Average Monthly Population

- Juvenile Hall
- Camp Glenwood
- Camp Kemp
The Youth Services Center (YSC) - Juvenile Hall is a 180-bed detention facility providing secure and safe custody services to youth in collaboration with other County Departments and community-based organizations to provide food, health, mental health, education, and special programs to youth based on individual needs.

Priorities for the Division for the next two years include the YSC Juvenile Hall facility upgrades to comply with the Board of State Community Corrections mandates, maintaining the integrity of the security surveillance system at the Youth Services Center and Camp Kemp; as well as the expansion of the re-entry programing to all youth in the facility that focuses on successful family reunification, continuation of educational or vocational connections, and community engagement.
Camp Glenwood for Boys

Camp Glenwood is a residential program for boys that offers education, counseling, and other services. It consists of two units - Section 3 for older boys, and Section 4 for younger boys. Boys typically remain at Camp Glenwood between nine to 12 months, but this time can be extended. For example, a youth who has gone AWOL may start over because he missed programming. Every Camp Glenwood youth attends family therapy once a week, provided by BHRS or StarVista. Multi-Family Group therapy is also provided for youth and their families.

Tracking the Progress of Youth at Camp Glenwood

Boys advance through seven levels in order to successfully complete their time at Camp Glenwood. Longer home passes (12-hour vs. 24-hour) are associated with higher levels. The time spent at each subsequent level depends upon their total time in custody, their behavior and progress, and the following petition process that is required to progress to another level:

- Youth must complete and submit answers to questions (“What brought you to Camp?”) and write a letter to the victim, if one was involved
- Youth meet with the Deputy Probation Officer (DPO), Institutions Services Managers (ISM), and possibly a therapist, teacher, Group Supervisor (GS), or section counselor
- Youth must make the case as to why they should progress to the next level.

Camp Glenwood Total Number of Commitments and Releases Across the Fiscal Year

The total number of commitments to Camp Glenwood during FY 2017-18 was 22 and the total number of releases was 23. The highest number of releases occurred in July 2017 (n=6) and January 2018 (n=5), however this remained at zero to two releases for most of the year showing a trend similar to the number of commitments per month. There were five AWOLS.

Margaret J. Kemp Camp (Girls Camp)

Camp Kemp provides a safe, caring, and gender responsive environment for adolescent females who are placed on probation and who are committed by the Court to participate in the Camp Kemp program. The Gaining Independence and Reclaiming Lives Successfully (G.I.R.L.S.) program at Camp Kemp is for girls who have violated the law and have substance abuse and/or mental health issues and have not been successful in probation; a recommendation by the DPO and acceptance by the Court are required. The G.I.R.L.S. Program is a collaboration between mental health, alcohol and drug interventions, and Rape Trauma Services, among others, that provides services to girls, as needed.

Camp Kemp requires family involvement and consists of three phases. Phase I and Phase II involve Camp Kemp services for in custody and out of custody youth, while Phase III involves out of custody youth supervised by a DPO as part of the Girls Empower Program (GEP).
Tracking the Progress of Youth at Camp Kemp
Each girl is assigned a clinical counselor who meets with girls two to three times per week and provides a report on girl’s progress to the DPO. The DPO is responsible for providing a Court Report to the Judge when she goes to Court. Progress is tracked by the GS through unannounced home and/or school visits and drug testing.

Girls typically remain at Camp Kemp for 6 months, but their release can take up to 19 months and depends upon their progress. Several factors are considered in a youth’s release from the G.I.R.L.S. Program, including family involvement, in custody success and progress, and a supportive drug and alcohol-free home environment by which a girl can return. Participation in the Parent Project is required.

Programs and Services in the Institutions Services Division
Youth services and programs take place every day of the week at the Juvenile Hall, Camp Glenwood, and Camp Kemp. While youth are invited and encouraged to attend all programs, specific programming for each youth is also determined by those that are court-appointed, assigned by a DPO, or selected by ISMs and GSs on the Housing Units based upon the individual needs of youth.

Below is a complete list of all youth programming in the Juvenile Hall, Camp Glenwood, and Camp Kemp, broken out by those considered evidence-based programs and services integrating evidence-based practices (EBP), curriculum based programs and services, and staff initiated informal programs and services. The section also provides greater detail of these programs.
